On the 1st March, Dodford and Weedon together with Brockhall, Flore, Heyford and Stowe become the new Upper Nene benefice under the pastoral care of the rector, the Revd. Stephen Burrow. Everdon join Badby, Charwelton, Fawsley, Newnham and Preston Capes in the Knightley Benefice; we pray that they will soon find their new rector. This all means that this will be the last Together in this format as we move to this new beginning. It is, perhaps, a good thing that this is happening within the season of Lent when we give more of our time to God and to seek his will for us, both collectively and individually.

Let us pray that as we move into these new relationships, we will be ready to listen to God and to one another and develop our churches in new ways so that we will build up God's Kingdom in the two benefices.

Prayers:

- That we may all make a good Lent in preparation for Easter.
- For Revd Stephen as he takes on the larger Upper Nene benefice and all who are part of the churches in the benefice.
- For all who will be concerned with appointing a new rector for the Knightley benefice.
- For Archbishop Sarah Mullaly as she is enthroned as Archbishop of Canterbury.
- For friends and neighbours who are suffering through illness, anxiety or bereavement.

Something to think about –

For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.

Romans 12:4-5
